ST. JOE-23: RENSSLAER-27.

Feb. 22.—The Basket Ball enthusiasts of Collegeville were greatly surprised on last Wednesday when the Varsity journeyed to Rensselaer and went down in defeat before their old rivals whom they had beaten twice before by a very large margin.

We are unable to account for it and considering the fact that it is the first time in many years that Rensselaer has succeeded in downing us in Basket Ball we have not as yet recovered from the effects.

ST. JOE-24: BATTLE GROUND-13.

Feb. 26.—Another exciting and spectacular finish enabled the Varsity to defeat Battle Ground Saturday evening although at the start it looked rather doubtful for St. Joe. The first half ended with the score tie but in the second half the Varsity had everything their own way and piled up seventeen points while their opponents were making seven. The fine work of Filey and Moran was a noticeable feature of the game and they contributed very materially to the Varsity's success.

Senior League.

III. LATINS - VS - II. LATINS.

Feb. 19.—The II. Latins outclassed their opponents in every respect and found it no difficult task to defeat them by the score of 25 to 6. The pass work of the II. Latins was exceptionally good and was an important factor in winning their game. But to Fitzgerald must be given the honors of the day for through his close and clean guarding he did not allow Beckman the star of the III. Latins to score a single field basket and thus put a damper on the whole team's hope and chances for victory.

III. COM. - VS - II. LATINS.

Feb. 22.—The II. Latins were defeated by the score of 30 to 24. Good pass work and guarding of the Com. practically won the game for them although in the second half the Latins made a desperate attempt to gain the victory but the time was too short. Barth starred for the Latins and Riley for the Com.

SENIORS - vs - I. Com.

Feb. 24.—The Seniors avenged their former defeat by "walloping" the I. Com. by the score of 43 to 11. Marantette scored the only field basket for his team, whilst Dufrane had eight field baskets to his credit. Foul shooting of Endres and pass work of the Seniors were the features of the game.

III. COM. - VS - III. LATINS.

Feb. 25.—The Com. showed their real strength when they defeated the III. Latins but only after a hard and interesting contest. Individual playing of the Latins lost the game for them, whilst the guarding of Riley helped his team considerably. Osterloh and Malay made the most points for their respective teams.

Academic League.

SHAMROCKS - VS - TIGERS.

Feb. 20.—The Shamrocks defeated the Tigers by the score of 19 to 12. The first half showed the Tigers two points in the lead but the Shamrocks started an early and continual rally, and defeated them. Kihm's five field baskets and "Tony" Bombach's spectacular dribbling of the ball for the entire length of the floor featured the game.

EAGLES - VS - TIGERS.

Feb. 22.—The Eagles had little difficulty in defeating their opponents and the final score showed the Eagles having 20 points to their credit while the Tigers could only boast of 13. As usual the playing of Nolan was a feature.

SHAMROCKS - VS - MAROONS.

February 22.—The Shamrocks through their excellent shooting and consistent playing managed to gain a victory over the Maroons, thus forcing them to bow to their second defeat of the year, Kihm, Sudhoff and Schell each scored four field baskets whilst Petzold was the main support for the Maroons.

Junior League.

CARDINALS - VS - BLUE BELLS.

Feb. 21.—The Cardinals clumb up another notch for the pennant when they defeated the Blue Bells by the score of 16 to 10. The game was exciting, but featureless except for the good guarding of the Cardinals.

Laurels - vs - Blue Bells.

Feb. 22.—The Blue Bells suffered their second straight defeat when the Laurels forced them to accept the short end of the score 13 to 6. Kozacik, was as usual, the support of his team making all the points, save two, whilst Lambert scored all the six points for his team.

IMPERIALS - VS - CARDINALS.

Feb. 22.—The Cardinals celebrated the day at the expense of their opponents, the Imperials and won the game by the count of 19 to 12. The Imperials rallied in the last period, but as usual the rally started too late and the lead of the Cardinals was too large to be easily overcome.

EDITORIALS.

THERE is much discussion among the managers whether it would be advisable to add another round to the Senior League.. As it is at present each team has two more games to play. This would bring the league to a close in about three weeks. The concensus of opinion, however, is that this should not be done, because if it were, the entire league would be kept busy until Easter. There are many reasons why basket-ball should not be carried into April. weather would be too warm for one thing, and then we should have that time to get the baseball team in shape.

Our experience of last year ought to teach us the impracticability of such a move. Many of the teams forfeited there games because the weather was too nice for indoor play.

ALL the other Colleges have been in base-ball training for over a month, in fact some are ready to start playing by the 1st of March. Of course this is a little early for actual work, but still it is time to begin to get in shape for practice.

Get out on the campus, boys, and let's see what you can do. Prospects are as bright this year as the y ever were, and great are the hopes for a winning team.

LOCALS.

Prof.—What book do you put your cash receipts in?

Bone Kennedy—In your Pocket Book.

Stepp — Come on fellows I finally got started.

Carmody—I'm ashamed of your team Steve.

Mallady—I need'nt be any more ashamed of my team than you should be of yours.

The Holy Rollers hold a meeting in the smoking club "Sanctum" on Monday March 6. King Brady will open the meeting with a song.

Bone—I'm getting deaf. I guess I'll get an "earoplane."

Joe's Gold Brick.

Collegeville 's excited, and so's a boy named Joe.
But why all this excitement?
Just hear Joe's tale of woe:

"Well he came, boys, and he showed me,

A game I thought was fine, A millionaire I'd soon be, If his contract I would sign, I signed it, sure, would'nt you, now, With the gold a coming thick? But when I signed the contract up It nearly made me sick To think, I work all summer Each morning, noon and night And pay my board and lodging And train rides—it's a fright! And when, I sell a book, boys. Express on it I pay And if I dont sell what they ask "Your fired" comes my way Those hundred fifteen dollars Have dwindled down to nought It's awful, boys! its awful, The "gold brick" that I bought."
